Dennis Nahat's CANNONADE is pure rapid-fire energy, as fast as the mortar fire that inspired its title. this classical ballet is danced to Johann Sebastian Bach's Piano Concerto No. 1 in D minor.

Choreographer Michael Smuin's SHINJU is a Japanese 'Romeo and Juliet style tragedy' danced to a custom-composed score by renowned Japanese-American composer Paul Chihara with brilliantly creative costumes by Willa Kim...the "Dream Team" that recently brought THE TEMPEST to our stage.
(Includes partial nudity)

Nahat's signature piece, QUICKSILVER, is choreographed to Felix Mendelssohn's Piano Concerto No. 1 in G minor, Opus 25. This youthful, joyous work with its driving force delivers a powerhouse of a finale.
