FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gaîté Parisienne and Flemming Flindt's Phaedra

February 22-25, 2001

Ballet -- Gaîté Parisienne

Choreography -- Léonide Massine

Composer -- Jacques Offenbach

Music -- Gaîté Parisienne

Musical Arrangement -- Manuel Rosenthal

First Performed -- April 5, 1938—Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo

Short Byte: Our Winter Repertory Program will feature Léonide Massine's fabulous Gaîté Parisienne danced to a score by Jacques Offenbach. A story of romance and high spirits set in a turn-of-the-century café, this mini-ballet features the rousing and uninhibited Can-Can in a tale of the nightlife of old Paris. Also on the evening's program is Phaedra by Flemming Flindt set to the music of Philip Glass...with a brand new orchestration.
